Dear Sir: Enclosed find photographs of Clay Wilson and "Doc" Baggs, notorious confidence men, whose specialty is the "adjoining claim" mining swindle. This pair pulled off their game in this city in October, 1909. Wilson was arrested at Rochester, N. Y., extradited to this city, and was tried and convicted last December, under the alias of H. G. Mason. He has been sentenced to a three-year term, but is now out under bond, pending his appeal to a higher court for a new trial. "Doc" Baggs is known around New York City as Charles B. Duncan. He has been indicted here under the alias of R. S. Prentiss, and is still wanted.

"CLAY WILSON."

These two fellows have been operating together for thirty years, and are known to be among the smoothest in the business. The photos of Wilson show him as he appears in the guise of an old miner, or prospector, while working the above mentioned game. Baggs is always well dressed, and poses as a prosperous business man and mine owner.

Wilson, alias Mason, alias Rice, alias Ross, alias Moore, is described as being about 38 years of age, height about 6 ft., weight about 200 lbs., and wears glasses.

"DOC BAGGS, ALIAS CHARLES B. DUNCAN."

Baggs, alias Prentiss, is described as being about 71 years of age, weight about 145 lbs., about 5 ft. 7 1/2 in. in height, hair almost white, hazel blue eyes, slender build, right index finger amputated at third joint. Bertillon: 70.5, 77.0, 88.5, 108, 10.3, 14.4, 0.7, 25.7, 11.7, 9.0, 47.7.

Any information relative to the criminal record of "Doc" Baggs will be highly appreciated.

A reward of $250.00 has been offered by the plaintiff in the local case against these fellows, for the arrest and conviction of Baggs.

Yours very truly, J. N. ALLBACK, Chief of Police.

Harry Galloway, Alfred Stevenson and Harry Galloway, Alfred Stevenson and JOHN DAY.

Morse Seaton were arrested by Chief Detective Shaw and Detective Bryant on charges of vagrancy and, on their being arraigned before the magistrate, Harry Galloway was identified by the complainant in the above case as a man being concerned in the swindle.
The confidence tricksters moved on and was as follows: Goldblom picked up a man apparently a farmer whom he se-

Then Goldblom suggested that they go for a walk, and they then met the prisoner Day. All three then talked about racing and Goldblom suggested to Day that if he had anything good, that he should put some money on for him. They then do and Day takes it to the club as he alleges but in reality it was taken to the prisoner Galloway, after about fifteen minutes' play returns with a racing ticket and money, saying that they had won, and they shared their winnings with the victim. Then Day left them, saying that he was going to the post office as he was expecting a wire about a horse that was sure to win. Shortly after he returned with a typewritten telegraph form on

DENVER BUNCO

RING MEMBERS

ARE SENTENCED

1923

Eleven To Serve From Seven To Ten Years; Eight Others Given Term Of Three To Ten Years

DENVER (Colo.), June 1.—(AP)—Members of Denver's so-called "million dollar bunco ring" were given penitentiary sentences today.

After overruling their motion for a new trial, Judge George F. Dunklee sentenced Lou D. Blonger, called the "brains" of the band, and ten of his associates to serve from seven to ten years each in the Colorado state prison. Eight other members of the convicted group of swindlers received sentences of from three to ten years each. Blonger is 73 years old.

Long Term Prisoners

Those who were sentenced to serve from seven to ten years were: Blonger, A. W. Duff, called the "first lieutenant" of the confidence men; Jack French of Cleveland, Ohio; A. B. Cooper, Little Rock, Arkansas; George (Tip) Belcher, Thomas Beech, Steve J. Olsen, A. H. Potts, Robert C. Davis, George Walker, Walter Hyland and Louis Mushnick.

Those sentenced to serve from three to ten years were: Jack Hardaway, John Allison, George Walker, G. H. Williams, John H. Foster, G. C. Bailey, W. L. Strahan and William Dougherty. The jury had recommended leniency for Hardaway, Allison and Dougherty.

One Not Sentenced

Greve Sullivan, convicted with the others last March, was not sentenced. Dr. D. L. Phillips, appointed by the court to investigate Sullivan's mental condition, yesterday reported to the court that Sullivan was insane. It is probable Sullivan will be given a jury trial to determine whether he will or will not go to an insane asylum.

The twenty defendants were convicted on three counts, charging conspiracy, conspiracy to commit confidence gaming, and conspiracy to commit grand larceny.

Under the law Judge Dunklee could have imposed sentences ranging from one to ten years in the penitentiary. The prosecution of the bunco ring attracted widespread attention throughout the country.

Many Victims Testify

The twenty defendants were found guilty March 25th. The trial lasted two months. Victims of the band came to Denver from different parts of the country and testified to having lost from $5,000 to $54,787 each. Many other victims did not come here for the trial.

PROVIDENCE POLICE HEADQUARTERS

Providence, R. I., June 8th, 1927.

CHIEF OF POLICE:

SIR:

Eva and Vincent Smelevicz of 187 Oak St., this city, reports that on Sunday evening, June 5th, 1927, a man came to her house and made arrangements to stay there for a couple of days, and as he had been there a year before, she gave him a room and he brought around another fellow who was staying at the Franklin Hotel, Providence, R.I. and introduced him as a Millionaire. This #2 man said he was a millionaire from Chicago and that he was giving away lots of money to poor people, but he must know that they know how to handle money and Mrs. Smelevicz said that she showed him her bank book which called for deposits of $5,819.36 and he said that he couldn't read, that he would have to see real money before he believed it. So at 10 AM, Wednesday, June 8th, 1927, Mr. and Mrs. Smelevicz went down to the bank and drew out $5,000.00 in bills and brought it back to her home where the two men were waiting for them and showed them the money. #1 man suggested that they tie it up in a handkerchief and put it in a box, and #2 man said that he would put $2,000.00 with it to show his good faith, and #1 man suggested that they put it in a clothes box of Mrs. Smelevicz, and that Mr. and Mrs. Smelevicz should watch it and they would go down and buy tickets on the railroad train. The men left and never returned. At 12 Noon Mrs. Smelevicz looked in the box and found that the handkerchief contained a lot of newspapers cut to represent bills and a ten dollar bill on top. The bait to get this money was that if Mr. and Mrs. Smelevicz could show them $5,000.00 the Millionaire from Chicago would give her $10,000.00 more, as he was giving away money to poor people.

#1 described as German Polish, 33 years old, 5'6" tall, stocky build, wore sailor straw hat, light suit, tan shoes, has long thick features, teeth in upper and lower jaws missing, smooth face, ruddy complexion. Speaks German, Polish, and Good English. Known as Joe Hajen.

Taken at Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 2, 1925.

DESCRIPTION: 35 years old, five feet eleven and one-half inches tall; weight, 166 lbs., medium stout build, light sandy hair, thin on top; florid complexion, grey eyes; he may have a small mustache and a goatee; he is well dressed, pleasant appearing, good talker; a golf player, makes wagers on games of golf, etc.; this man has throat trouble and coughs continually.

DESCRIPTION of man giving the name Fred Condine: 39 to 50 years old, close to six feet tall, good build, smooth face, good head of hair, well dressed, convincing talker; has appearance of reserved business man.

George D. Ball makes a specialty of visiting Winter Resorts, such as Hot Springs, Ark., Mt. Clemens, Miami, Jacksonville, and other places, getting acquainted with wealthy people, plays golf, and represents that he has large real estate holdings in Miami, Palm Beach and other places. After he becomes acquainted with his victim, he arranges to meet casually the man known as Fred Condine, whom he represents as an agent of the J. P. Morgan Banking House, with inside knowledge of the stock market, etc., and then he tells the complainant that he and Condine are going in on a deal in which they intend to clean up a half million dollars; the next day he has Condine call on complainant, with himself and a third man, and they claim that the money is already made, and all that is necessary is for them to show that they had $500,000.00; the third man had a brief case filled with money, and Ball, Condine and the third man and the complainant all agreed to put up a part of the $500,000.00. Ball induced the complainant to come to Rochester, N. Y., where on May 4, 1926, he obtained $40,000.00 in cash, and stocks valued at $75,000.00, to be held by Ball and Condine, as collateral, to show the responsibility of the complainant.

Ball took the cash and stocks and went to Kansas City, Mo., where he sold the stocks.

Ball, alias, Capt. Ball, alias, Johnson, etc., has police records in Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, San Diego, and Memphis; he is known as a big mitt man, and for years has been traveling on railroad trains and steamboats, fleecing travelers in card games, usually poker; he usually has two or more confederates with him, and generally uses drawing room of some sleeping car.

The complainant in this case has authorized me to offer a reward of $1,000.00 for the arrest of Ball and Condine, or either of them, and their delivery to officer of this department.

Please make a search for these men in your city or vicinity, and if found, arrest, hold and wire, and I will send officer with necessary papers for their return to this city.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of April 29, I beg to advise that we have been able to identify our "bunco" man as John B. Vlavich, alias John B Vlovich, John B. Valovich, John B. Volavich, known to the victim as Mike Bullatresh, described in our bulletin of April 23, 1931.

I wrote for a photostatic copy of his finger prints and photograph and this I will send to you in a bulletin that I am now making up.

I believe that Mr. Doyle is the same as John B. Vlavich, alias Mike Bullatresh for whom we are looking. I also find that Bullatresh is not a Greek, but may be an Austrian or Slavonian.

I wish to thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge receipt of your circular of April 23rd, reference number 2-2-7279, advising that a party in your city, George Kantor, had been swindled out of one thousand dollars by two confidence men.

We made investigation of the California 1931 License No. 4 A 55 17 and learned that it is registered to a Ford Coupe, to Mrs. M. Sistrunk, 1864 44th Street, Sacramento, legal owner San Joaquin Investment Company, P O 1580, Stockton, California.

This Ford Coupe was bought for Mrs Sistrunk by a Mr. Doyle, to whom she was to be married; the man's description of Mike Bulletresh tallies with Mrs. Doyle's description with the exception that he is not a Greek.

Mrs. Sistrunk made a payment on this Ford Coupe for April, 1931 from General Delivery, Seattle Washington; the Investment Company sent a registered letter to Klamath Falls, Oregon prior to receiving the April payment, but it was returned with the notation that she may be at 1418 J Street, this city, but she has not been there.

We trust the above information will be of assistance to you.

Sir: ---WANTED FOR GRAND LARCENY - TIN BOX BUNCO GAME---

On February 28, 1930, a man by the name of Nicholas Des Camps was buncoed out of two thousand dollars in cash by the following described bunco men who used the well known tin box and charity game. No. 1, 35 years; 5 ft. 8 in.; 170 lbs.; round face; high cheek bones; medium complexion; black hair; wore gray overcoat and gray hat. No. 2, 30 years; 5 ft. 7 in.; 145 to 150 lbs.; dark complexion; full face; wore black overcoat and black hat.

One of the bunco men made Des Camps' acquaintance and after knowing him about four or five days, he told Des Camps that his father wanted to distribute several hundred thousand dollars to cripples on the streets. Des Camps was to be employed as the Seattle representative at a salary of five dollars per day. Des Camps was asked to post a two thousand dollar bond, so he offered his savings deposit book, but the man wanted cash, so Des Camps went to the Washington Mutual Bank, this city, and drew out the required two thousand dollars consisting of twenty new one-hundred dollar bills, serial numbers from L-00071430-A to L-00071449-A, Federal Reserve District No. 12.

Upon coming out of the bank, Des Camps and the bunco man met a second man who produced a fake roll which was supposed to represent part of the money to be given to the cripples. The three then went to a hotel room. One of the men left and returned shortly with a tin 'strong box' in which to place the money. One of the men then took Des Camps' money and was supposed to wrap it in a large red handkerchief and place it in the box with the other 'roll', but instead, he made the switch. The men then told Des Camps that they would let him take care of the box and money while they went out to attend to other business. After waiting three hours, Des Camps came to Police Headquarters and told the same old story. The 'roll' consisted of newspaper covered with three one dollar bills.

We are attaching herewith a photographic reproduction of a finger print which was found on a moonshine bottle in the room occupied by the bunco men. Kindly keep a careful lookout for known bunco men who answer the above description. If anyone is found in possession of any of the above numbered bills, kindly question them carefully as to where and how they came into their possession. We might add that these men operated around employment offices in this city.

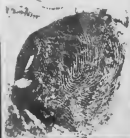

Any information that will assist us in apprehending or identifying these men will be appreciated.

Seattle 3/4 30 Yours very truly,

L. J. FORBES, Chief of Police.
